

University of Hawaii Professional Assembly Grant Application Great Teachers Seminar 2013

ELIGIBILITY

All lecturers and I2 faculty in the UH System who teach half-time or more and are members in good standing of UHPA are eligible to apply. You may join now if you are not a member. The number of grants is limited and will be based on funds available. Grants will cover the actual costs of the Seminar tuition fee and airfare. Award decisions will be based on the information provided below with first priority being given to applicants who have never attended a Great Teachers Seminar and applicants with less teaching experience.

DEADLINE

Full consideration will be given to all applications received by May 6, 2013. Applications received after May 6, 2013 will be considered only if grant money remains.

Successful applicants will be notified by May 13, 2013 and be given detailed instructions as to how to register for the Seminar and how UHPA will pay their registration fee and airfare.

Submit this application and your statement via fax to UHPA at (808) 593-2160, or email to pamt@uhpa.org or mail to:
