

UHPA Sponsors Informational Financial Planning Seminars Fall 2012

UHPA is sponsoring informational financial seminars as a service to UHPA members. Whether you are newly hired or a long time faculty member there is information that can assist you in making decisions on employee benefits, budgeting and take home pay, housing and retirement with the challenges that come with living in an island state. Every campus will have access to this program either in October or November.

The seminars are two hours and you can come to both or the hour that interests you most.

- The first hour will deal with general concerns, but not limited to the Employee Retirement System (ERS); Island Savings, 403(b) Accounts; Family/Sick Leave and the Employer-Union Trust Fund (EUTF).
- The second hour is designed for our newer and younger faculty and will deal with budgeting, housing, keiki education, and managing benefits and their costs.

Robert Borek, a financial consultant with LPL Financial, has been commissioned by UHPA to provide this seminar and appropriate materials for your use. There is no cost to UHPA members.

There is no registration or sign up. Just come to the meeting that is on your campus!
